I like the Guinness World Records, its content is interesting and a good read. My review is specific to the e-book version which really doesn't work on a kindle. You get 2-3 pages of pictures with a headline, and then 2-3 pages of description about the pictures you previously saw. For it to work you really need picture, then description, and so on.

Getting four people together to hug is a more enduring endeavor than just two, for which Guinness World Records lists a record of two college students embracing for more than 32 hours in 2015. Setting the new record for duo hugging is probably much easier, if only because it's logistically easier to get just one other person on board and over to the house to practice. But like any other act of
