Abstract. In 2009, in an article for this journal, we argued that UK legal and political developments, following the events of September 2001, had designated Muslims as the 'enemy within' and served to construct Muslims as the principal suspect community (Pantazis and Pemberton 2009). This work sought to utilize and extend Hillyard's original (1993) thesis, which postulated that, during the period of Irish political
